Dear Parents and Carers

We have had a week of vibrant colours as the children played their part in raising funds for the Children in Need appeal (total raised to be announced at a later date – well done to all the Baden Powell Community, I am so proud of your efforts).

It was wonderful to see our children dressed so spectacularly in their yellow and polka-dot clothing. Even Mr Smith dropped his stoic demeanour and dressed for the occasion – although not as wonderfully as the children and the staff.

This half-term I am looking forward to working with our reading ambassadors (Amirah, Martha and Mahek) in developing a love for reading across the school. They have already developed some wonderful ideas – a lunchtime reading club; buddy readers for year one; a reading newsletter for children and parents/carers

See the other side for an example of our wonderful year two children's learning in Religious Education (Aila and Yuvraj)
